

RGP CEO Kate Duchene Named to SIA Staffing 100 List for Second Consecutive Year

February 17, 2022

IRVINE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 17, 2022-- RGP (Nasdaq: RGP), a next-generation global human capital solutions firm, today announced that CEO Kate Duchene has been named to the Staffing Industry Analysts (SIA) Staffing 100 North America list for 2022. SIA also ranked RGP #9 among the largest Finance/Accounting staffing firms in the U.S.

SIA, a global advisor on staffing and workforce solutions since 1989, established the Staffing 100 list in 2011 to honor outstanding leaders who have made significant contributions in the staffing industry. This year's list is comprised of professionals who navigated the uncertainties of 2021 and are charting a course into the future of workforce solutions.

RGP's continued operational improvements under Duchene's leadership – coupled with the tailwinds of the “Great Resignation” and the growth of project-based work – helped the firm achieve its highest revenues in 10 years during consecutive quarters in Q1 and Q2 FY22. RGP has grown its professional staffing and project consulting businesses as client demand for co-executing change and transformation projects has increased.

“It's an honor to be recognized alongside some of the industry's most remarkable individuals, especially at a time when we're seeing such a rapid pace of change,” Duchene said. “We continue to prove that our agile talent model is ideal for today's Now of Work environment amid the shifting needs that organizations and knowledge workers are both experiencing. Our client base, largely the Fortune 1000, relies on our agile talent to help run the organization and change the organization. Our pipeline is stronger than ever, and we're excited for the journey ahead of us as we continue to build on our commitment to providing our clients with the right talent and tools they need to succeed.”
